

PUBLIC ARTS BOARD
Minutes – February 28, 2013

---

Meeting called to order at 6:49 p.m.

- A) Roll Call –
Members Present: Barbara Heller, Kathryn Ambrose, Linda Wells, Sally Parsons
Members Absent: Diane Kowaleski, Carolyn Hollingshead
Administration: Christian Wuerth

- B) Approval of Minutes – January 23, 2013
Motion by Ambrose to approved the meeting minutes for January 23, 2013, as amended.
Seconded by Parsons
Yeas: 4      Nays: 0

- C) Unfinished Business
None

- D) New Business

1. CityScapes Follow-Up

An update from the Cultural Council of Birmingham-Bloomfield regarding their preferences for the next phase of the CityScapes program will be discussed at a future meeting and then shared with the Public Arts Board.

The Board discussed the necessary relocation of Journey Home by Dennis Oppenheim. Staff will solicit input regarding concerns and comments for the proposed location near the Library and return in March with a formal recommendation for the Board's consideration.

2. Chalk Art Project

Heller indicated that Kathy Walgren was interested in helping to lead this project. She will discuss with her and report back at a future meeting.

3. Future Meeting Dates

Wuerth indicated a poll would be conducted for a March meeting date.

- E) Committee Reports
None

F) Communication

Heller and Wuerth discussed a proposal for a public education lecture or panel discussion centered on Marshall Fredericks and his work. Wuerth will follow-up with the Baldwin Public Library and the Marshall Fredericks Museum and report back to the Board in March.

G) Public Comments

None

The meeting was adjourned at 8:08 p.m.