Final Days for Golf at Lincoln Hills Golf Course

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., December 5, 2017 – Golfers are encouraged to visit the City of Birmingham’s Lincoln Hills Golf Course (2666 W. 14 Mile) this week for the final days of the 2017 golf season. The course will close for the season this Friday, December 8th at the end of business.

“It’s been a terrific golf season and we thank everyone for your patronage,” said Lauren Wood, Birmingham’s Director of Public Services.

As colder temperatures move in and the greens are covered with snow, there will still be plenty of activity at Lincoln Hills Golf Course. The winter sports season offers opportunities for sledding and cross country skiing. Following a snowfall, visitors should call the clubhouse at 248-530-1670 prior to arrival to be sure it’s open and ready for winter sports enthusiasts.
