Birmingham City Attorney Recognized on Crain’s 2021 List of Notable Women in Law

BIRMINGHAM, MI, April 27, 2021 – Birmingham City Attorney Mary M. Kucharek has been recognized on Crain’s 2021 list of Notable Women in Law. Kucharek is an equity partner at Beier Howlett, P.C. and transitioned into her role as City Attorney for Birmingham earlier this year.

According to Crain’s, honorees were selected by a team of Crain’s Detroit Business editors based on their career accomplishments, track record of success in the field, and mentorship of others. Honorees “manage high-profile cases and are mentors, champions and beacons of their community.”

“Mary has been fantastic in her role as City attorney and this designation is well deserved,” said Birmingham City Manager Tom Markus. “Her hard work and dedication are appreciated by the entire City staff and it is a privilege to work with her.”

Kucharek concentrates her practice in the areas of criminal prosecutions, criminal defense, and victim advocacy. She graduated from the University of Detroit, Cum Laude where she received the Jerome P. Cavanaugh Academic Scholarship and was a member of the Order of Barristers.

Kucharek has served on the Oakland County Mental Health Authority Board and she is active in her church community. She is an Oakland County Bar Association Inns of Court mentor, and contributed to the District Court Bench-Bar conference. She lectures yearly at local high schools regarding laws involving alcohol, drugs, and minors. She is also a frequent speaker to community groups relating to under-age substance abuse.
