Birmingham Invites Community to Participate in Parade

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., February 12, 2016 – Plans are underway for a treasured Birmingham tradition spanning more than 40 years. The City will kick off the spring and summer season with the Celebrate Birmingham Hometown Parade on Sunday, May 15 at 1 p.m. in downtown Birmingham. This year’s parade is themed “A Celebration of the Great Outdoors”. Participants and parade-goers are encouraged to be creative and take part in the theme.

Members of the Birmingham community and surrounding areas are cordially invited to register now to participate in the parade. School groups, marching bands, girl/boy scouts, karate clubs, dance classes, veterans, organizations and businesses are encouraged to march in the parade. Take advantage of this fun, unique opportunity to become involved with the Birmingham community. Children's activities, strolling parade performers, food and live music will be held in Shain Park immediately after the parade.

Celebrate Birmingham Hometown Parade

Register by submitting an online registration form at <http://bit.ly/2016BhamParade>. Registration forms must be submitted by Friday, April 29, 2016.
