

This topographic map of the Town of Chatham, Columbia County, NY, displays a detailed view of the region's terrain. The map uses a color gradient to represent elevation, with green indicating lower altitudes and yellow/orange indicating higher elevations. A network of roads is shown, including major routes like US Route 20 and State Route 203, as well as numerous local roads. Water bodies, including several lakes and streams, are depicted in blue. The town's boundary is outlined in black, and the village of Chatham is highlighted in grey. A legend in the bottom-left corner, titled "Topography", defines the symbols for the town boundary and village boundaries. The map also shows neighboring towns like Valatie to the west and East Nassau to the northeast. The title "Town of Chatham" and "Columbia County, NY" are prominently displayed in the top-left corner.
