Re: Vacancy Appointments for Unexpired Board and Commission Terms

The city currently has a handful of vacancies on its boards and commissions due to resignations related to relocations, job changes, and competing commitments. The enclosed chart shows current membership and vacancies for the city's nine board and commissions and the Maplewood Community Growth Fund board.

For the vacancies with terms expiring June 30, 2024, I will bring forward a list of candidates for the Council's review and discussion during our established time period for annual appointment of board and commission members (applications will open in early April and will be reviewed by Council on May 14; appointments will be made on May 28).

Prior to that process, I would like make appointments for seats with vacant terms that extend beyond 2024:

- Human Services Commission (seat expiring 2026)
- Board of Adjustment/Housing Board of Appeals (seat expiring 2027)
- Sustainability Commission (seat expiring 2025; must work for a Maplewood business)

Enclosures: Current Board and Commission members; application matrix
