- Citizens comments on September Legislation (five minutes)
  - Tony Haywood & Royette Smith apologized to the Council for the oversight on the grading permit that is required; but has now received the grading permit from the county.
  - And barricaded the area with a fence for safety.
  - All paperwork brought to the city Code Enforcement Officer yesterday; and ready to move forward
    - Councilman Herring offers that after a Public Hearing there is a six day wait prior to the legislation to come for a vote
    - Next meeting is on September 9, 2019 – need to see all information to the Council for review.
  - Leo C. Wilson Sr. inquiry on the lot: is this the same lot for the memorial for Mr. Smith because he was under the impression that lot was unbuildable.
    - Royette Smith offers that the lot purchased for her Father's memorial was not sufficient for the pavers the family had chosen. However, there will be further research for the memorial, but this is not the same lot. For the current project.

- Tony Howard offers that WSSC needs to treat the water flow. New construction needed to allow for the new water management system.
