Shorewood Community Center Kitchen Rental Documents Required BEFORE Working in the Kitchen

- Completed Shorewood Community & Event Center Kitchen Rental Application. A $200.00 security deposit is required before signing rental agreement.
- Copy of Food Safety Certification (The State of Minnesota requires individuals to apply for and obtain a Food Safety Certificate. This certificate can be obtained by contacting Hennepin County Public Health Department.) If this cannot be met an Itinerant License must be applied for.
- Copy of Minnesota Food Manager Certificate, a person who will be either catering or selling food directly to consumers, must apply for a food license through Hennepin County before you can begin working. You are licensed for the kitchen that you will be working in, so it is imperative to find your kitchen space before applying.
- Copy of Food Manager Certificate, a person who will be selling their product wholesale to a retailer, needs to obtain a Minnesota State License and/or contact the Department of Agriculture to obtain approvals.
- Copy of Current Insurance Policy (a three hundred thousand dollar liability policy is required to utilize the commercial kitchen). The Shorewood Community & Event Center and the City of Shorewood MUST be listed as "Additional Named Insured".
