16.04 Parenting Time Schedule

The Court has approved the following Parenting Time Schedules; however, nothing in this Rule prevents the litigating parties from Creating their own parenting time schedule.

Stark County Parenting Time Schedule #1
Stark County Parenting Time Schedule #2
Stark County Parenting Time Schedule #3
Stark County Parenting Time Schedule #4
Stark County Parenting Time Schedule #5

Schedules located in “Forms and Links” tab of Family Court website.

STARK COUNTY FAMILY COURT
PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE #1

PARENT 1: _____ PARENT 2: _____

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §3109.04, the Court must consider the best interest of the child when establishing a parenting order. The Court further finds that as it is generally in the best interest of the child(ren) to enjoy a continued meaningful relationship and companionship with both parents on a consistent and frequent basis, the presumption is that parents should share the time equally.

No specific schedule will satisfy the change in needs of both children and parents over the years. Critical to the success of any schedule is that each parent be flexible, based upon the changing needs of the child(ren), as the child(ren) grows older. This parenting schedule takes into account the changing developmental needs of the child(ren). This parenting schedule represents the minimum requirements for parenting time. It is each parent’s responsibility to tailor this schedule as necessary to meet the best interest of their child(ren). It is the affirmative duty of the parent exercising physical custody of the child(ren) to make certain that the child(ren) goes for all parenting time periods with the other parent. It is recognized that each situation and each child is different. Liberal parenting time arrangements are encouraged, as contact with both parents is important to the child(ren).

Parenting time between the child(ren) and parents may take place at such times as the parties may agree, however, absent agreement of the parties to the contrary, each parent shall follow these requirements.

I. Standard Parenting Order

A. Infant – up to Age 2

Unless otherwise agreed or the court order states otherwise, Parent 1 is the parent designated as the residential parent. Parent 2 is the non-residential parent and may spend at a minimum two mid-week visits and alternating weekends, Saturday morning to Sunday evening. If the parents cannot agree as to the days and times, the following schedule shall be followed:

In the event that there exists any conflict between parenting time schedules, the following is the order of priority:

- First priority: Holidays and Days of Special Meaning;
- Second priority: Vacation periods or extended parenting times;
- Third priority: Weekends and mid-weeks (regular parenting times).

B. Exchanges and Transportation

The parent receiving the child(ren) for the parenting time is responsible for picking up and transporting the child(ren). The other parent is responsible for picking up and transporting the child(ren) at the conclusion of the visit. The child(ren) may be transported by any trusted adult with a valid driver's license and insurance, and with legal car restraints. Each parent must have their own legally appropriate car restraints.

Both parents shall transport and exchange all personal items and specialized equipment including, but not limited to, emotional security items (e.g favorite blanket, favorite toy, etc), specialized extracurricular equipment, uniforms, instruments, bicycles, etc. If the child is taking medication (prescription or non-prescription) upon the advice of a physician, the child(ren) shall be sent with sufficient medication to last the entire parenting time period and written instructions for the administration of the medication, and the name and telephone number of the physician or other appropriate medical care provider. Absent extraordinary circumstances, all prescribed medication shall be exchanged and given to the child(ren) as per the prescribing doctor's prescription.

C. Illness

It is expected that the parents will follow the parenting time schedule despite any illness of the child(ren), unless both parents agree that this would not be advisable due to the child(ren)'s condition.

Both parents should use common sense as to a sick child(ren) and be sensitive to the child(ren)'s needs. In the event that a child(ren) is ill, medications and instructions for special care shall travel with the child(ren). Each parent should notify the other, as soon as reasonably possible, of any diagnosis, injury or treatment, as well as the name, address and phone number of all treatment facilities and medical professionals involved.

STARK COUNTY FAMILY COURT
PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE #2

PARENT 1: _____ PARENT 2: _____

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §3109.04, the Court must consider the best interest of the child when establishing a parenting order. The Court further finds that as it is generally in the best interest of the child(ren) to enjoy a continued meaningful relationship and companionship with both parents on a consistent and frequent basis.

No specific schedule will satisfy the change in needs of both children and parents over the years. Critical to the success of any schedule is that each parent be flexible, based upon the changing needs of the child(ren), as the child(ren) grows older. This parenting schedule represents the minimum requirements for parenting time. It is each parent’s responsibility to tailor this schedule as necessary to meet the best interest of their child(ren). It is the affirmative duty of the parent exercising physical custody of the child(ren) to make certain that the child(ren) goes for all parenting time periods with the other parent. It is recognized that each situation and each child is different. Liberal parenting time arrangements are encouraged, as contact with both parents is important to the child(ren).

Parenting time between the child(ren) and parents may take place at such times as the parties may agree, however, absent agreement of the parties to the contrary, each parent shall follow these requirements.

1. Weekends:

Beginning on a specific date _____, every other weekend from Friday night at 6 p.m. to Monday morning before school or 8 a.m. during the summer or other times when school is not in session. The parent enjoying weekend parenting time is responsible for transporting the child(ren) to school, other daycare, or extracurricular activities as necessary.

2. Midweek:

In addition, the child(ren) shall spend a minimum of two (2) week days of parenting time from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. on two (2) consecutive evenings:

- Monday - Tuesday
- Tuesday - Wednesday
- Wednesday - Thursday

Upon agreement of the parties, the midweek visit may be an overnight rather than two consecutive days.

If a child(ren) is/are in a child care arrangement, the nonresidential parent may not pick up the child(ren) from the caretaker without the prior written permission of the residential parent.

3. Summer Vacations:

Each party shall be entitled to three (3) weeks of summer vacation parenting time during the summer, unless otherwise agreed. Each party shall give the other not less than sixty (60) days advance written notice of their intent to vacation. The nonresidential parent's choice of vacation has priority over the residential parent's choice, unless the residential parent is required by an employer to give more than a sixty (60) day notice of intent to take a vacation and the nonresidential parent has no such requirement. Likewise, the residential parent must give the nonresidential parent not less than sixty (60) day advance written notice of vacations or special plans for the child(ren) to avoid planning conflicts.

A parent's week of summer vacation may be added to their regularly scheduled weekend for a maximum scheduled vacation period of ten (10) days. No makeup time is required.

Each party shall exercise vacation on their parenting time only. Each party shall be entitled to two (2) periods of vacation flex time which may be attached to the beginning or end of any declared vacation dates. Vacations flex days shall be taken in three (3) consecutive days. Flex days must be taken together. No make-up time shall be given to the other parent for the utilization of flex days. Three (3) days flex time shall only be utilized for out of state vacations of seven (7) days or greater duration and only during the summer vacation unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Each party shall provide a written thirty (30) day notice prior to vacation along with an itinerary and contact information to the other party.

Summer school necessary for the child(ren) to pass to the next grade must be attended. Extended parenting time (vacation) may be scheduled by either parent during a mandatory summer school period, but the child(ren) must attend all classes.

Each parent shall get the child(ren) to scheduled activities during summer vacation.

4. Days of Special Meaning and Holiday Parenting Time:

Any days of special meaning, such as religious holidays, not mentioned below should be discussed and written into the court order.

Mother's Day and Father's Day: Unless otherwise specifically agreed upon or ordered by the Court, Mother's Day and Father's Day shall be spent with the appropriate parent. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the time shall be from 9:00AM to 8:00PM. The child(ren) shall spend the rest of the weekend with the parent who would otherwise be entitled to companionship that weekend under these rules.

In the event that there exists any conflict between parenting time schedules, the following is the order of priority:

The Court further finds that as it is generally in the best interest of the child(ren) to enjoy a continued meaningful relationship and companionship with both parents on a consistent and frequent basis.

No specific schedule will satisfy the change in needs of both children and parents over the years. Critical to the success of any schedule is that each parent be flexible, based upon the changing needs of the child(ren), as the child(ren) grows older. This parenting schedule represents the minimum requirements for parenting time. It is each parent's responsibility to tailor this schedule as necessary to meet the best interest of their child(ren). It is the affirmative duty of the parent exercising physical custody of the child(ren) to make certain that the child(ren) goes for all parenting time periods with the other parent. It is recognized that each situation and each child is different. Liberal parenting time arrangements are encouraged, as contact with both parents is important to the child(ren).

Parenting time between the child(ren) and parents may take place at such times as the parties may agree, however, absent agreement of the parties to the contrary, each parent shall follow these requirements.

16. Weekends:

Beginning on a specific date _____, every other weekend from Friday night at 6 p.m. to Monday morning before school or 8 a.m. during the summer or other times when school is not in session. The parent enjoying weekend parenting time is responsible for transporting the child(ren) to school, other daycare, or extracurricular activities as necessary.

17. Midweek:

In addition, the child(ren) shall spend a minimum of one (1) week day of parenting time from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. If the parents cannot agree on a day, the day for the midweek parenting time is Wednesday.

If a child(ren) is/are in a child care arrangement, the nonresidential parent may not pick up the child(ren) from the caretaker without the prior written permission of the residential parent.

18. Summer Vacations:

Each party shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of summer vacation parenting time during the summer, unless otherwise agreed. Each party shall give the other not less than sixty (60) days advance written notice of their intent to vacation. The nonresidential parent's choice of vacation has priority over the residential parent's choice, unless the residential parent is required by an employer to give more than a sixty (60) day notice of intent to take a vacation and the nonresidential parent has no such requirement. Likewise, the residential parent must give the nonresidential parent not less than sixty (60) day advance written notice of vacations or special plans for the child(ren) to avoid planning conflicts.

A parent's week of summer vacation may be added to their regularly scheduled weekend for a maximum scheduled vacation period of ten (10) days. No makeup time is required.

Each party shall exercise vacation on their parenting time only. Each party shall be entitled to two (2) periods of vacation flex time which may be attached to the beginning or end of any declared vacation dates. Vacations flex days shall be taken in three (3) consecutive days. Flex days must be taken together. No make-up time shall be given to the other parent for the utilization of flex days. Three (3) days flex time shall only be utilized for out of state vacations of seven (7) days or greater duration and only during the summer vacation unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Each party shall provide a written thirty (30) day notice prior to vacation along with an itinerary and contact information to the other party.

Summer school necessary for the child(ren) to pass to the next grade must be attended. Extended parenting time (vacation) may be scheduled by either parent during a mandatory summer school period, but the child(ren) must attend all classes.

Each parent must provide the other parent with written notification of the destination, times of arrival, departure, and method of travel if the vacation will be outside the parent's state of residence or if the travel will be for greater than twenty-four (24) hours.

Each parent shall get the child(ren) to scheduled activities during summer vacation.

If summer vacation interrupts a routine weekend, it does not change the weekend rotation. (i.e. Vacation may cause one parent to have 3 weekends in a row.)

19. Days of Special Meaning and Holiday Parenting Time:

Any days of special meaning, such as religious holidays, not mentioned below should be discussed and written into the court order.

Mother's Day and Father's Day: Unless otherwise specifically agreed upon or ordered by the Court, Mother's Day and Father's Day shall be spent with the appropriate parent. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the time shall be from 9:00AM to 8:00PM. The child(ren) shall spend the rest of the weekend with the parent who would otherwise be entitled to companionship that weekend under these rules.

Child(ren)'s Birthday: The child(ren)'s birthday shall be spent with the Parent 1 in even-numbered years and Parent 2 in odd-numbered years. Unless otherwise agreed, the parenting time shall be 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. for a child(ren) not in school on his/her birthday and 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. for a child(ren) in school on his/her birthday. The other parent can celebrate on another date. Siblings shall be permitted to participate if the exercising parent desires.

20. Conflicting Schedules / Order of Priority:

In the event that there exists any conflict between parenting time schedules, the following is the order of priority:

- First priority: Holidays and Days of Special Meaning;
- Second priority: Vacation periods or extended parenting times;
- Third priority: Weekends and mid-weeks (regular parenting times).

21. Exchanges and Transportation:

The parent receiving the child(ren) for the parenting time is responsible for picking up and transporting the child(ren). The other parent is responsible for picking up and transporting the child(ren) at the conclusion of the visit. The child(ren) may be transported by any trusted adult with a valid driver's license and insurance, and with legal car restraints. Each parent must have their own legally appropriate car restraints.

Both parents shall transport and exchange all personal items and specialized equipment including, but not limited to, emotional security items (e.g favorite blanket, favorite toy, etc), specialized extracurricular equipment, uniforms, instruments, bicycles, etc. All prescribed medication shall be exchanged and given to the child(ren) as per the prescribing doctor's prescription.

If the nonresidential parent is late more than thirty minutes, he/she shall forfeit that parenting time unless the nonresidential parent notified the residential at least one hour prior thereto. However, if an unforeseen event/emergency prevents timely notification, then notification must be given as soon as possible. Parents should communicate to prevent the forfeiture of parenting time.

Parenting time does not mean picking up the child(ren) and then leaving them with someone else, except for short periods of time.

22. Illness:

It is expected that the parents will follow the parenting time schedule despite any illness of the child(ren), unless both parents agree that this would not be advisable due to the child(ren)'s condition.

Both parents should use common sense as to a sick child(ren) and be sensitive to the child(ren)'s needs. In the event that a child(ren) is ill, medications and instructions for special care shall travel with the child(ren). Each parent should notify the other, as soon as reasonably possible, of any diagnosis, injury or treatment, as well as the name, address and phone number of all treatment facilities and medical professionals involved.

Any weekend parenting time that is missed due to the illness of a child(ren) shall be made up the following weekend or as the parents may mutually agree. Each parent shall promptly notify the other parent of a child(ren)'s illness prior to the exercise of parenting time. The Court does not expect parents to abuse the intent of this Rule and interfere with either parent's time with the child(ren).

23. Telephone, Computer, and/or Other Method of Electronic Communications:

Each parent shall have reasonable communication with the child(ren) during the other parent's parenting time, not to exceed once a day between the hours of 9am and 8pm. Any mail or e-mail between the child(ren) and either parent shall be strictly confidential and shall not be opened or read by the other parent.

Each parent shall keep the other parent informed of a telephone number where the child(ren) can be reached.

24. Child(ren)'s Extracurricular Activities:

A parent should not enroll the child(ren) in extracurricular activities that will unreasonably interfere with the other parent's parenting time. Both parents shall make best efforts to transport the child(ren) to all activities. Parents need to realize the significance of these activities in their child(ren)'s lives, and flexibility is encouraged. It is the responsibility of the parents to discuss the child(ren)'s extracurricular activities in advance, including times, dates and transportation needs, so that the child(ren) are not deprived of activities and maintaining friends. Each parent shall provide the other with copies of any written material (i.e. activity schedules, maps, instructions) that are distributed in connection with the child(ren)'s activities. The parent who has the child(ren) during the time of scheduled activities is responsible for transportation, attendance and other arrangements. Both parents are encouraged to attend all of their child(ren)'s activities.

25. School Issues and Information:

Each parent must provide time for the child(ren) to study and complete homework assignments, papers or other school-assigned projects, even if the completion of this work interferes with the parent's plans with the child(ren).

Each parent shall be responsible to obtain their own copies of grade reports, disciplinary notices and/or communications, including information regarding school pictures. Each parent is responsible to set up his or her own online access to school records and information, if available. Both parents are encouraged to participate in parent-teacher conferences, school trips, school programs and other school events in which parents are invited to participate.

27. Records Access:

Except as specifically modified or otherwise limited by court order, and subject to statutory restrictions on files maintained by the Child Support Enforcement Agency and files maintained by any Education Institution when the non-residential parent is involved in a domestic violence situation, each parent is entitled to access under the same terms and conditions as the other parent to any record that is related to the child(ren) and to which either is legally provided access, including school records and medical records.

Upon the filing of a uniform complaint, the juvenile is permitted to waive appearance in court if it appears:

1. That the alleged offender is a juvenile between the ages of 14 and 18 years at the time of the offense;
2. That this is the first traffic offense for the offender;
3. That the offense is minor, i.e., a violation involving the assessment of two or less points by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles;
4. That the offense does not allege operating a vehicle without an operator's license, drag racing; willfully fleeing or eluding a police officer; operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or of any drug of abuse; or passing a school bus or speeding in a school zone.
5. That the citing officer has not indicated on the face of the Uniform Traffic Citation that a court appearance is necessary.

The juvenile and his/her parent must sign the reverse side of the uniform traffic ticket which shall constitute an admission to the allegations set forth on the uniform traffic ticket. Said ticket is to be returned to the Stark County Clerk of Courts Juvenile Division, along with payment of fine and costs prior to the court appearance date noted on the face of the uniform traffic ticket.

Upon signing the admission to the offense, a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00) and court costs is imposed. In addition, points, if applicable, will be assessed by the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles on the juvenile's driving record.

The waiver shall constitute an admission to the traffic violation and a waiver of the juvenile's rights to trial before the court, to cross-examine witnesses who appear against him, to subpoena witnesses on his behalf, to remain silent, and to representation of counsel.

If the child is unable to provide appropriate proof of financial responsibility, the child is ineligible to participate in this waiver procedure, and must appear before the Court for hearing and disposition.

Mediation is prohibited as an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence; in determining whether to grant a protection order; in determining the terms and conditions of a protection order; and in determining the penalty for violation of a protection order.

In cases, other than those addressing domestic violence cases or protection orders, if the mediation screener determines that mediation between the parties is not appropriate under the circumstances, the mediation screener shall issue a report, within five (5) business days following the mediation screening, informing the parties or their respective counsel that they have been screened out of mediation, and setting a date certain for the next hearing. In such circumstance, the court may consider and order alternative services including, but not limited to, psychological examinations, counseling and appointment of a guardian ad litem, property evaluations or any other appropriate community resource, which may aid the parties in reaching a settlement.

If the mediation screener determines that mediation is appropriate for the parties and the parties agree to or are ordered to mediate, then the parties shall participate in mediation with a court approved mediator. Each party shall then immediately attend an orientation prior to their first mediation session. The orientation will set forth the manner in which the mediation will be conducted as well as the scope of the mediation.

The mediator shall control all procedural aspects of the mediation not otherwise agreed to by the parties or set by the court. If an agreement is reached, the mediator shall inform each party the agreement has no binding effect until it is adopted by the Court, and that either party may withdraw from the agreement prior to the court's approval of the agreement.

(B) Confidentiality

All mediation proceedings are confidential settlement negotiations. With the exception of the mediation screening report, the "Mediation Outcome Report", and any signed mediated agreement, all matters occurring within mediation shall be kept confidential from the Court.
